Communication

To communicate important announcements, and to help you all coordinate as a team, we've set up a Slack^ workspace! Click the text below to join:

JOIN OUR SLACK WORKSPACE!

We'll be posting any last-minute info, important announcements, even when dinner/workshops start! So, make sure you setup your account as soon as possible.

[^] Slack is a communication (chat/call) app. It's accessible through the browser, and they have apps available on iOS and Android, as well as Windows, macOS, and most popular Linux distros.

To learn more about Slack, click here!

* While we will have snacks to tide you over, we won't be stocking your super special Maple Buffalo Bacon Savage Jerky®, so bring that with you!

FAQ

When will teams be formed?

We'll give you time on Friday to brainstorm and form teams!

What food will be provided?

Finger food will be provided on Friday evening. Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner will be provided on Saturday. Breakfast and Lunch will be provided on Sunday. Water and soft drinks will be available throughout the day.

Will my dietary requirements be catered to?

Certainly! We've made arrangements with our chefs to cater to all your requirements (I'm looking at you, "pescetarian"). If you have not specified your dietary requirements via Eventbrite or our online form, please inform us ASAP via email.

Can I stay overnight?

Yes! Make sure to bring your overnigting essentials (see previous page).

What if I DON'T stay overnight?

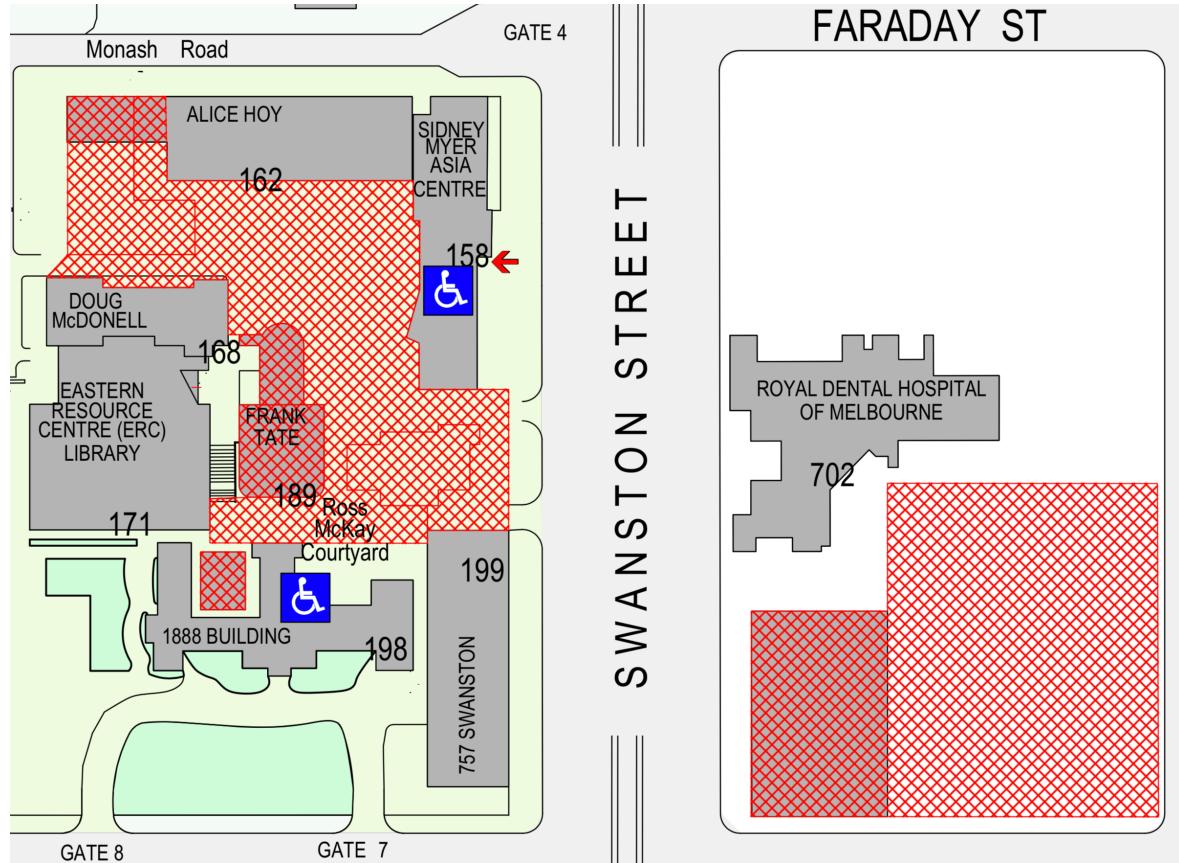

While you can leave at anytime, doors to Kwong Lee Dow will be locked from the inside between 9PM and 8AM, for security reasons (you can't make your midnight 7-Eleven run, sorry).
